3. Each Agency member who desires to contribute to subject campaign should fill out the Application for Membership card, detach the membership stub, and return the application card (together with the contribution), to his Administrative Officer. Administrative Officers are asked to deliver the membership cards and contributions - check or cash - to the Services Branch, Employee Services Division, room 1418 Curie Hall.

4. It should be noted that these Boys' Club application cards will be retained in the Services Branch, Office of Personnel, and no information concerning the donors will be released.

5. Your assistance with previous fund-raising campaigns is greatly appreciated, and, with your continued help, I am sure the Boys' Club Campaign will be highly successful.
